

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

2014 Request for Grant Applications for Self-Advocacy Organizational Support RFGA FFY14-SA-02

What is the Scope of Work for this RFGA?

The Arizona Developmental Disabilities Planning Council (ADDPC) will make funds available to support Self-Advocacy efforts in Arizona. The ADDPC's Five Year Plan outlines objectives to support self-advocacy, recognizing the importance of strengthening existing self-advocacy organizations as a prerequisite to developing a statewide alliance of self-advocates.

The ADDPC seeks to work with multiple grantees across the state to conduct outreach, build relationships and develop components of training and technical support that will develop and strengthen existing and new self-advocacy organizations to function effectively in carrying forward self-advocates interests and needs, while self-advocacy organizations receive the supports to become viable and sustainable organizations.

How much is available in this solicitation?

The total amount of funding available for this Scope of Work is $215,000.

How much can I apply for?

Applicants shall apply for what is reasonable to complete the list of Tasks, Strategies and Evaluation as outlined in the Scope of Work.

How many applications can be responded to by an organization?

One request per Applicants shall only be submitted.

When are the applications due?

Applications are due on June 26, 2014, 3:00 PM (Phoenix Local Time) to the ADDPC Office.

Will my application be accepted if it arrives late or sent to a different location? What if I run into traffic delays or I get lost in locating the ADDPC Office?

The ADDPC can not accept late applications. It is the responsibility of the Applicant to submit the required number of applications to the ADDPC office by the due date and time.

How often do I need to check the ADDPC website for RFGA amendments?

Applicants are encouraged to check back on the ADDPC website often as amendments may be posted prior to the due date. Amendments are the official changes to an RFGA and must be downloaded, signed and returned with the application.

When will I be notified if my application has been accepted or rejected?

Applicants will be notified in writing and the expected award date is tentatively September 2014.

Who do I contact if I have technical questions on this RFGA or the grant process?

Applicants shall only contact Marcella Crane at (602) 542-8976 or via email at mcrane@azdes.gov. Written inquiries are preferred.
